STEALTH (5E, 2024 RULES) – DESCRIPTION

Stealth is a Dexterity skill. It is used to hide from enemies, slip past guards, and leave unseen and unheard. It is used with the Hide action, which grants the Invisible condition while you stay hidden.

🎲 Quick summary:

1. To hide, use the Hide action: a Dexterity (Stealth) DC 15 check.
2. You must be Heavily Obscured or behind Three-Quarters Cover or Total Cover, and out of an enemy's line of sight.
3. Success: you are Invisible while you stay hidden. Note the result: it is the DC to locate you.
4. An enemy searches with the Search action: a Wisdom (Perception) check against that DC.
5. The condition ends if you make a sound, are found, attack, or cast a Verbal spell.

⚠ Using another ability:

- The ability of a check is decided by the situation: the DM may pair Stealth with Constitution (staying motionless for hours) or Charisma (blending into a crowd). Table rule
- The Proficiency Bonus applies when the skill fits and you are proficient.
- See the Use cases page.

⚠ Change from 2014

Hiding is an action (Hide) with a fixed DC of 15, limited to certain places, and it grants the Invisible condition. The check's result becomes the DC to locate you, instead of a comparison with passive Perception.

⚠ Flaw in the rule and fixes Table rule

You can't hide in the open, which frustrates some tables. The rules also don't say how to sneak outside combat. Fix: the DM announces the DC and what counts as cover before the roll.

💡 Narrative option: Table rule

Describe the held breath, the heart beating too loud, the torch passing a yard from the hiding spot.

STEALTH (5E, 2024 RULES) – HOW TO PLAY

Step 1 – Decide whether a roll is needed:

A roll happens only if someone can spot your character and the outcome is uncertain. With no observer, stealth is automatic.

Step 2 – Check the conditions:

Your character is Heavily Obscured or behind Three-Quarters Cover or Total Cover, and out of an enemy's line of sight. If they see a creature, they know whether it sees them.

Step 3 – Take the Hide action:

A Dexterity (Stealth) DC 15 check. The Rogue can use Hide as a Bonus Action (Cunning Action). On a success, you are Invisible; note the result.

Example: Brann (Dexterity +3, Proficiency +2) crouches behind a barrel (Three-Quarters Cover). He rolls 11 + 3 + 2 = 16: he is Invisible, locating DC 16.

Step 4 – Being searched for:

An enemy takes the Search action: a Wisdom (Perception) check. It must meet or beat the Hide result.

Next: the guard (Wisdom +2) rolls 12 + 2 = 14 against 16: he doesn't find Brann.

Step 5 – The Invisible condition ends:

- You make a sound louder than a whisper.
- An enemy finds you.
- You make an attack roll (the attack still gets Advantage).
- You cast a spell with a Verbal component.

Step 6 – Sneak (outside Hide):

To slip past guards, the DM asks for a Dexterity (Stealth) check if the outcome is uncertain. DC: scale 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30.

🕶 The Invisible condition at a glance

- Concealed: you are not affected by effects that require seeing their target, unless the effect's creator can see you. Your gear is concealed with you.
- Attacks: attack rolls against you have Disadvantage; your attack rolls have Advantage. Against a creature that can still see you, you don't get this benefit.
- Initiative: Advantage on the Initiative roll.
- End: see step 5. With Hide, the condition lasts while you stay hidden.

Stealth uses in the 2024 rules:

Situation	Check and DC
Hide (Hide action) while Heavily Obscured or behind Three-Quarters/Total Cover, out of line of sight	Dexterity (Stealth) DC 15: Invisible condition
Be located by an enemy (Search action)	Wisdom (Perception) ≥ the Hide result
Wear armor whose Stealth column says Disadvantage	Disadvantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks
Rogue level 2 (Cunning Action)	Hide as a Bonus Action

When one use case leads to another:

First check	Consequence	Next use case
Successful Hide	You are Invisible	Advantage on attacks, Disadvantage against you (Invisible sheet)
Hide before combat	Enemies unaware	Surprise: Disadvantage on Initiative (Surprise sheet)
Invisible on the Initiative roll	Advantage	You act before your enemies (Initiative sheet)
Enemy's successful Search	You are located	Invisible ends: normal combat
Attack from hiding	The Invisible condition ends	The enemy locates you and can retaliate

Chain example: Brann (Invisible) attacks the archer guard with Advantage, then the condition ends. The guard locates him and retaliates.

Ability + skill combinations: Table rule

The DM decides the ability by the situation and applies proficiency if it fits. These combinations are exceptions announced before the roll.

Combination	Use in play
Constitution (Stealth)	Stay motionless in a painful position for hours without moving an eyelash.
Charisma (Stealth)	Practice "social stealth" (pass as a waiter to infiltrate a party).
Intelligence (Stealth)	Plan a stealthy route by spotting blind spots and patrol rounds.
Wisdom (Stealth)	Sense you are being watched and freeze at the right moment.
Strength (Stealth)	Move a heavy chest or coffin without making a sound.

Neighboring skills:

Skill	Use in play
Dexterity (Sleight of Hand)	Conceal a small object on yourself or slip it away unseen.
Charisma (Deception)	Lie to justify your presence if you are spotted.

How to choose: Table rule

1. What does the task demand: power, agility, endurance, mind, presence? That gives the ability.
2. Which skill describes the know-how? Apply proficiency if it fits.
3. The DM announces the combination and the DC before the roll.

Example: Mira (Constitution +2, Stealth proficiency +2) stays motionless 3 hours in a niche, DC 15. She rolls 10 + 2 + 2 = 14: failure, she cracks and moves. See also the Athletics sheet.

Common table questions.

Can you hide in the open?

No: the Hide action requires Heavily Obscured or Three-Quarters/Total Cover, and being out of an enemy's line of sight.

Stealth or passive Perception?

The Hide result becomes the DC to locate you with Wisdom (Perception) via the Search action. For an enemy who isn't searching, the DM may compare to its passive Perception (table rule).

How long do I stay Invisible?

While you stay hidden: until a sound louder than a whisper, being found, an attack roll, or a Verbal spell.

Does an attack from hiding benefit from the condition?

Yes: the condition ends right after the attack roll, so it gets Advantage.

Does a spell ruin stealth?

Only if it has a Verbal component. A spell without one doesn't end it.

Can a group hide together?

Each character uses their own Hide action and makes their own check.

Does armor hinder?

Yes: if the armor table's Stealth column says Disadvantage, you have Disadvantage.

Is a 20 an automatic success?

No: on an ability check, a 20 or a 1 has no special effect.

Which features help?

The Rogue (Cunning Action, Bonus Action), Expertise, and the Rogue treating a 9 or lower as a 10.

⚠ Rule clarifications (answers found on the web, reworded):

20 and 1 on a check

On an ability check, a 20 or a 1 has no special effect: no Critical Hit, no automatic failure.

Hidden, invisible, found

A hidden creature has the Invisible condition, which ends when a creature finds it. Blindsight and Truesight reveal it.

Hiding again

After attacking, you need the Hide action to hide again, unless you have a special ability.
