Level 1 – Abjuration
Casting Time: Bonus Action · Range: 30 feet
Components: V, S, M (a small silver mirror) · Duration: 1 minute
Classes: Cleric, Paladin

You ward a creature within range. Until the spell ends, any creature that targets the warded creature with an attack roll or a damaging spell must first make a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, the creature must choose a new target or lose the attack or spell.

This spell doesn't protect the warded creature from areas of effect. It ends if the warded creature makes an attack roll, casts a spell, or deals damage.

🎲 Quick summary:

1. You ward a creature within 30 ft (Bonus Action).
2. Whoever targets it must succeed on a Wisdom save.
3. Failure: a new target or the attack is lost.
4. Ends if the creature attacks, casts a spell, or deals damage.

⚠ Flaw in the rule and fixes Table rule

The text doesn't say what counts as "attacking" (shoving, grappling, healing). Fix: stick to the text: attack roll, spell, damage dealt.

💡 Narrative option: Table rule

The DM can describe a silvery glow turning aside the aggressors' gaze and arm.

Step 1 – Ward:

Bonus Action. A creature within 30 ft (yourself included).

Step 2 – Targeted attack:

Any creature that targets it with an attack roll or a damaging spell first makes a Wisdom save.

Step 3 – Failure:

The attacker chooses a new target or loses the attack or spell.

Step 4 – End of the spell:

The warded creature makes an attack roll, casts a spell, or deals damage: the spell ends.

Example: Hugo wards Mira, who is hurt. A goblin aims its bow at Mira: Wisdom 8 against DC 13, a failure. It must choose another target.

⚠ Common questions:

Is a saving throw needed?

Yes: Wisdom, for whoever targets the warded creature.

What happens on a failure?

The attacker must choose a new target or loses the attack.

Does it protect against areas of effect?

No.

What ends the spell?

An attack roll, a spell cast, or damage dealt by the warded creature.

Does shoving or grappling end it?

No.

What action?

A Bonus Action.

How long does it last?

1 minute.

Can I heal an ally without breaking the spell?

Yes, if the warded creature deals no damage and casts no spell. Table rule

⚠ Debate points and table options: Table rule

Areas of effect

The spell doesn't protect against areas. Option: keep it.

Healing an ally

Healing deals no damage. Option: it doesn't end the spell.

Shoving or grappling

Neither ends the spell. Option: keep it.

Allies attacking

An ally who attacks doesn't end the spell as long as the warded creature does none of those three things. Option: keep it.

A new target

The text lets the attacker choose. Option: the DM may impose the nearest target.

⚠ Rule clarifications (answers found on the web, reworded):

What ends the spell

Only an attack roll, a spell cast, or damage dealt by the warded creature ends the spell: grappling or shoving doesn't change that.
